

KUNSTHOCHSCHULE MAINZ

The Mainz Academy of Fine Arts at Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz (JGU) is the only fine arts academy of the state of Rhineland-Palatinate. It offers the programs of study Liberal Fine Arts (Diplom/Meister) and Fine Arts for Teaching at Secondary Schools (Bachelor and Master of Education). The Academy of Fine Arts is characterized by its sense of collegiality and flexibility, and in offering cooperation not limited to one artistic medium.

The Mainz Academy of Fine Arts invites applications for the position of

University Professor of Sculpture

beginning on October 1, 2024.

Salary grade W 2 LBesG | Civil servant (tenured)

Tasks and expectations:

The Mainz Academy of Fine Arts at JGU is looking for a professor to lead a class in Sculpture, in which students from the programs of study "Liberal Fine Arts" and "Fine Arts for Teaching at Secondary Schools" participate equally.

The successful candidate is expected to have contributed substantially to the field of sculpture and space-based works in contemporary art.

The willingness to actively participate in the life and self-organization of the Academy is expected.

Requirements:

- Internationally renowned body of work and professional practice in the field of contemporary sculpture.
- Degree from a relevant art academy/university and/or an exceptional career and artistic practice
- University/academy level teaching experience
- Outstanding aptitude for artistically experimental work
- In addition to the general requirements according to public services law, applicants must meet the recruitment requirements stipulated in Section 49 of the Hochschulgesetz of Rhineland-Palatinate
- Comprehensive knowledge of German, as the work at the Mainz University of Fine Arts is predominantly conducted in German.

The state of Rhineland-Palatinate and JGU are committed to the close personal mentoring of students and therefore expect teaching staff to have a strong presence at the Academy of Fine Art. A cooperative, team-oriented and proactive work attitude, strong communication skills, and the willingness to assume responsibility – including further professional development in accordance with JGU's leadership guidelines – is also expected.

What we have to offer:

The Mainz Academy of Fine Arts at JGU firmly supports making family and career compatible and promotes its employees' further professional development with an extensive human resources development offer.

Applications from artistic partners who wish to share the position may be submitted.

The Mainz Academy of Fine Arts at JGU values the diversity of its staff. It welcomes qualified applications from people with diverse backgrounds.

Candidates with severe disabilities and appropriate qualifications will be given priority.

The interviews, presentations and sample lectures will most likely take place on April 22 and 23, 2024.

Please apply via <https://berufungsportal.uni-mainz.de/datenabfrage/W2-Bildhauerei> with your complete application information and documents (CV, relevant certificates, a list of exhibitions, publications and courses, a teaching plan (max. 2 pages) and digital versions of publications and catalogues) by January 15, 2024 at the latest.

If individual publications essential to the application are not available in digital form, catalogues may be sent additionally by post. The weight of the documents should not exceed 5 kg. They can only be returned if a sufficiently stamped return envelope/cardboard box is enclosed.
